

Clinical Observations:	Circumscribed, bluish, fluctuant translucent nodule on lower labial mucosa.
Diagnosis Notes:	Clinical appearance characteristic of benign extravasation mucocoele.
Treatment Plan:	Surgical excision of minor salivary gland under local anesthesia if persistent.
Specialist Referral:	None Required